HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1889.

CARLYLE wrote the following scathing remarks as introductory to his Essay on that consummate knave who flourished during the latter end of the last century— Count CAGLIOSTRO:

"Wretched mortal, who with a single eye to be 'respectable' forever sittest cobbling together two Inconsistencies, which stick not for an hour, but require ever new gluten and labour, -will it by no length of experience, no bounty of time or chance, be revealed to thee that Truth is of Heaven, and Falschood is of Hell; that if thous cast not from thee the one, or the other, thy existence is wholly an illusion and optical and tactual Phantasm; that properly thou existest not at all?"

We think it hardly necessary to add that of individuals of that ilk, Hongkong has lately had a considerable experience. The present year seems to have opened with a succession of out-going and in-coming chevaliers, d'industrie of peculiarly original types, all hailing from that land of "tactual" Phantasm" to which Carlyle traced the birth of Cagliostro. While the honest and the industrious majority are toiling at their desks, or are otherwise acting in unison with the ever-working mother Nature, for the due fulfilment of their moral, social and domestic duties, a foxy minority are often engaged in the work of undermining A. I. May (chairman), G. H. Bateson Wright, nature's and man's laws by palming R. M. Jameson, Government Central School themselves off on a credulous community as so many superior men possessing means and resources beyond the popular imagination. The Colony has had a vast and a sad experience of these impostors, They make their appearance comet-like, unexpected and unlooked-for; they shine and coruscate for a while, just as long as the supply of shekels from a gullible transient lustre on the hotel bars; "up the store-keepers bow to them subserviently; of a sudden the comet either vanishes as Victoria Gaol, a very common aerolite indeed, composed of the basest metal. The accommodating, friends, -the boon comadventurers—then open their eyes wide, duped, "sold.". Is there no possibility of remedying this deporable state of things? That pedestrians, roguery exists everywhere is no reason why it should not be crusaded against, or why measures should not be taken for its ultimate extinction. The rogue, the knave, the impostor, those whom the French so appropriately term chevalius d'industrie, are the sworn enemies o all social order and morality; they are too lazy to earn a livelihood by honest labour and so they take to swindling, running full tilt against all social laws: As all work is in communication with Nature, so he who aims at living on fraud and deception is ipso facto Nature's enemy—a pariah and outcast unworthy of a place among men who are striving to make the world better than what they found it. It is the duty of the Government to provide the most effective measures possible for the detection and punishment of these poisonous parasites of society. Trade, labour, capital, honesty and social order are jeopardized by their presence. A tonic and direct stimulant to the growth of the | As this Colony appears to be fast becoming a convenient refuge for impudent vagabonds inscriptions were found graven on it. These and unscrupulous adventurers of almost every description, whose regueries are so materially assisted by the "chit" system generally prevailing, we would again recommend the store-keepers, hotel proprietors and others to combine for their own protection and establish a fixed rule as to giving credit that will render innocuous all future, attempts at swindling by soi-distant Russian counts and Yankee Millionaires.

THE first application under the new English Libel Law Amendment Act was decided on the 25th January by Mr. Justice Mathew. Messrs. Lion Brothers, boot manufacturers, moved for leave to criminally prosecute Mr. J. T. Day, the editor of the Shoe and Leather Record. for alleged libel. Under the old law, criminal proceedings could be sanctioned by the Public Prosecutor on an ex parte statement made by the plaintiff. In the present case the Judge, after hearing the arguments, refused leave to commence a prosecution.

A MEETING in connection with the Public Schools Athletic Sports was held at the Central School yesterday evening. There were present-Messrs. W. Machell, L. Lupinell, Diocesan School; C. . Bateman, G. It was agreed to hold the Sports for all the schools on the same day and to leave all details to a general committee convened by the Secretary. Hearty thanks to Mr. May for his exertions in placing the Sports once more on a sound footing, closed the meeting.

UPPER Wyndham Street is at best one of the most walk on the footpath—As never did. Well, we Pollock that He is not paid to wonder why panions of the reckless and the cheating the law. If he had taken the trouble to properly investigate the case he would have found:

A GANG of garotters seized a Jervoise Street merchant about 7.30 on Monday night, when walking along the Praya near the Canton Wharf, and actually stripped him of most of his clothes. Only one was caught, and he was this morning committed for trial. THE following are the orders of the day for the meeting of the Legislative Council to be held tomorrow, the 7th inst., at 4 p.m.;-

1. Financial Minutes.

2. Report of the Finance Committee. 3. First reading of a Bill for the Incorporation of the Director, in Hongkong, of the Berlin

Ladies' Mission for China. 4. First reading of a Bill entitled The Prison Amendment Ordinance, 1889.

5. Second reading of the Bill entitled The Stone Cutters' Island Ordinance, 1889. 6. Sanitary Bye-Laws, dated 13th February,

THE following curious story comes from Osaka; -A physician named Yakum, who lives at Sumiyoshi-mura, Osaka, was visiting the temple at that place a few days ago when he observed something shining on the ground. On stooping to ascertain what it was, he discovered it to be a gold bar 5 inches in length half embedded in the earth, and on his examining the bar closing commenced with an ancient genealogical table. and ended with particulars of a medicine described as effectual in curing the different ailments of women. Mr. Yakura has lately prepared the medicine in accordance with this strangely recovered recipe, and in every instance experience has proved that its virtues were not over-estimated.

WITH the advent of Spring the season for our athletic sports has fairly commenced. Three popular exhibitions are already advertised to take place during the current month, the Polo Club Races on the 9th, the Annual Highland Games of the 1st Battalion Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders on the 13th, and the Hongkong Amateur Athletic Sports on the 16th; the Rifle Association re-commenced its weekly Spoon competitions at the Kowloon ranges on Saturday last. During the latter portion of this month as well as throughout April a dozen more athletic meetings will probably be held, the season closing at the beginning of May. We have aiways been staunch supporters of manly exercises and of sports of all kinds, but we fail to see the appropriateness—of—their—being—held-in—the excessively damp and comparatively warm weather which prevails here during Spring. Running in a fog, or overwet ground, or with the east wind blowing straight in your teeth, cannot be conducive to health, whilst violent exercises performed in a warm atmosphere are certainly productive of chills. To this may be added the undesirable circumstance that the Race Course meadow where the sports are to be held in future is a locality noted for its miasmata in the warm months of the year; many a case of fever has already been traced to that spot, a fact which detracts considerably from its reputed healthiness. Under these circumstances we think that both the time and the place chosen for our yearly Olympic games are inappropriate. No better season could be chosen for athletic sports than the dry, cool month of November. Of the four seasons of the year, our Autumn and early Winter are facile principes as seasons for out-door amusements and exercises of the athletic sort. We do not exactly know what has led the promoters of these sports to hold them in the Race-course meadow, in the immediate vicinity of the Cemeteries, and in a place possessing an unsanitary reputation. Is there no other ground available for such purposes outside the Cricket field? Kowloon appears to us to be the place where all the sports can be conveniently held. Ample ground is to be found there for all athletic or gymnastic purposes. A chariot race on a grand scale might also be introduced into the programme of amusements, and spice ould not be wanting in the neigh positing petitinsula to give full scope to such a healthy pestime. We already have rifleranges and flow haddws in Kowloon; why not transfer thither but athletic sports ! We also think that besides the annual sports, room should be found in Kowloon for a permanent Gymnasium especially adapted to the scholastic population of the colony. Our school-boys have scarcely any introperly organised institution where they can get exercise, fresh air and recreation; The Cricket Ground is closed to them: the only amusement they really have is a plunge bath it the summer months in the enclosure of th Victoria Recreation Club. Why should the with its application.

The Chairman:—Yes, but what you state is no doubt connected with the Company, as you are hardly likely to be cognisant of what takes place in regard to other Companies.

Mr. Woolley did not desire to enter into a discussion, but assured him that he could substantiate all he had said. The Chairman:—Doubtless there are shortcomings at the wharves, for we are as yet but a young company. These will be remedied in time, however, and I can assure you that both directors and wharf managers will be only too pleased to listen to complaints from constituents and do what they can to satisfy them. A meeting of the lot-holders in the Prays Reclamation was held this afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce. There was a moderate attendance including The Hon. C. P. Chater (chairman), Hon. J. Company, who I meant, I will endeavour to explain them to you? The first condition is a very simple one and: venture to predict you will have no difficulty in accepting it. The Secretary of State tells us he will sanction the Reclamation Project provided we agree to defray the cost of a 75 foot Prays roadway instead of the 65 feet previously arranged. It seems this extra width will represent an additional cost of only $40,000 in filling, in which cost spread over our respective Reclamations adds such an insignificant trifle to the cost of the square foot that I think, Gentlemen, it is scarcel worth our while to demur to the proposition more especially as an increased width of road way will always tend to improve our frontage values. The second condition relates to compensation for piers. This condition looks at first a little complicated but I think you will find clear enough when you come to examine To begin with the Government thinks ought to refund the Colonial Treasury the cash in full, of the five public piers which will be absorbed in the Reclamation. These are Murray Pier, Peddar's Wharf, Pottinger Street Wharf, the Nam-Pak-Hong Pier, and the Harbour Master's pier. It is contended that these five structures were built at the cost of the ratepayers generally, and that therefore the ratepayers should not be put to any expense in the re-erection of them, by reason our private works of reclamation. Then passing on from public piers to private ones, we are tole that as the Reclamation will confer very consider able pecuniary benefits on us, we must consen to pay compensation to some extent, (that is to say, partial compensation) to such owners'of private wharves as are compelled to give way to us and remove their structures out of what wi be our future new lots. In connection with this payment of compensation to private whar proprietors it is explained to us, and I presume through us, to the what fowners themselves, that the Secretary of State admits no claim on their part to any indemnity for removal by reason Government reclamations which are for the benefit of the public generally, but that he does admit they have some claim for removal on account of the Marine Lot owners' reclamations which are for private profit. Therefore it is proposed to indemnify these what I proprietors not in full but only in that proportion which the private bears to the public reclamation. Or, in other words, say, by way of illustration, that the amount of Government reclamation is only one quarter while the amount of Marine Lot Owners Ri clamation is three quarters, then the pier-owners would receive only three quarters of whatever general scale of compensation has been decided by Government for the pier-owners all round. reclamations by about 20 cents a square foot and it will therefore be for you, gentlemen, to say whether you accept these conditions or not bearing in mind that if we reject them, it wil be extremely difficult for us to re-open negociations with the Government. With this short explanation of what has transpired since we las met here, I leave the matter in your hands; will be for you to consider what you do and what answer we are to return to the Colonir Secretary. I have of course, views of my own with regard to these conditions, and although I have no wish to obtrude these views on your notice, I see no harm in expressing to you my frank opinion, arrived at after very careful sideration, that it will be to our interest to accer the conditions unreservedly, and consequently, for one shall have no hesitation in casting my vote in favour of at once closing with the

the scheme by the meeting pledged them to the details of the plan? The annual meeting of the members of the hamber of Commerce was held this afternoon in the Chamber. The Hon. P. Ryrie presided, there being a fair attendance.

The minutes of the last general meeting and of the special meeting last April for the election of a successor to Mr. McEwen, the representative of the Chamber in the Council, were confirmed. The appointment of Mr. F. Henderson as secretary, vice. Mr. Jeffries resigned, the election of Messrs. Stollerfoht and Hint as provisional members, and the statement of accounts were also confirmed.

ATHE REPORT. The Chairman moved the adoption of the report, which was as follows :--

... The Committee beg to submit to the Chamber the following Report of their proceedings during the period under notice. DECLINE OF THE CHINA TEA TRADE.

The Tea Trade is a factor of such vital importance to the Commerce of China that any circumstances calculated to adversely affect either the quality or the quantity produced, is well worth the serious consideration of all those trading with the Country, even if not directly interested in the Tea Trade itself. Any marked decadence of the trade, or still, worse its entire: extinction (to adopt an extreme view) would probably tend to so cripple the purchasing power of the Country, as very materially to interfere with the future expansion of the Import trade, ir. all its branches. This important questionthe decline of the Tea Trade—has received muchattention at the hands of your Cormittee, and as will be seen from annexed letters, has been the subject of correspondence between this and the other Chambers in crested, and also with Sir Robert Hatt.

Improved culture, and more careful manipulation would no do ubt do much towards restoring China Tea to 1 cold fashioned Standard formerly so much appreciated, but heavily handicapped as it now is with excessive export duties, China Tea, if v.nrelieved, may ultimately give place to its rivels, the intaxed Teas of India and Ceylon. Whatever remedies may be adopted towards arresting the decline of the China Tea Trade, to b's effective, will have to be applied speedily. It is sincerely to be hoped that in view of the important mercantile interests involved, the Chinese Government will adopt measures to eradicate the evils complained of (primarily excessive taxation) which are slowly but surely undermining the China Tea Trade. City of the girly the PORTS. This anomaly, still maintains and has not been lost aight of by your Committee, who have thought it advisable to address a petition direct to the Queen, praying that Her Majesty might be pleased to annul an arrangement which accords to the Steamers of other nations status and privilege denied to British Steamers in titish Waters. Other Eastern Chambers following the same course have also petitioned Her Majesty, and this unanimity of action, backed up by the approval of Home Chambers, it is hoped, will prove effective in bringing about the desired change. THE INCONVENIENTLY HURRIED DESPATCH OF THE STEAMERS OF THE COMPAGNIE DES MESSAGERIES MARITIMES TO SHANGHAI AND JAPAN.

The great inconvenience to the Mercantile Community attending the hurried despatch of the above Steamers to Northern Ports-particularly as frequently happens when their arrival from Saigon takes place on Sundays—was brought to the notice of the Local Agent, Mr. De Champeaux, who considerately placed himself in communication with his Directors pointing out to them the desirability of extending the time of their Steamers' stay in this Port, if in their power to do so. A letter from Mr. Whitehead, Manager of the Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China, drawing attention to the proceedings of a Deputation from the Associated Chambers of Commerce. which waited on Mr. Raikes, the Postmaster General, induced your Committee to address the London Chamber on the above subject. Their letter, which is annexed, explains that while not wishing to discourage the introduction of a cheap "Sea" Postage for China, in their opinion, this to the great bulk of the Community here (unlike the Communities of the Australian Colonies would scarcely prove an advantage, if hampered with slow transit. The desirability of assimilating the Rates of Postage by British Packets to the Tariff by the French and German lines from Shanghai was strongly urged. (Appendix G.)

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE IN HONGKONG HARBOUR. The Revd. A. A. Gurney Goldso ith, as stated in his letter of 24th March to the Chamber, are worthy of every encouragement, but in view of the many conflicting interests involved the Committee do not see their way to support legislation to compel total cessation of Sunday work in the Harbour, and unless an unyielding law, applicable to all classes and nationalities of vessels, be passed, it would be unfair," (Appendix H.)

PINNACLE ROCKS AND OTHER OBSTRUCTIONS TO NAVIGATIONS ON THE CHINA COAST. His Excellency the Governor was pleased to place before your Committee certain correspondence having reference to the above subject, and also pointing out if sufficient inducement was offered much valuable information might be obtained from the numerous fishermen along the Coast who, from the nature of their calling, are necessarily well acquainted with the exact position of such obstacles. The question, one of general interest, was taken up by your Committee and in view of organizing a scheme, to define the position of Pinnacle Rocks and other dangers, and also of establishing a fund available for the payment of rewards, placed itself in communication with the Chambers of Commerce, Insurance Officers, and Firms at the treaty Sea ports of China. The proposal met with general approval, and subscriptions now collected amount to $1,900. So far the calls upon, the Fund have been very slight, but when it becomes generally known among the Fishermen that the information they can impart is, to them, intrinsically valuable, applications will increase, and there is every reason to suppose that the particulars so obtained will prove of the greatest value to all concerned.

DIRECT TELEGRAPHIC CABLE BETWEEN HONG-KONG AND SINGAPORE.

Your Committee having been asked by His Excellency the Governor for an expression of opinion as to the desirability of entertaining a proposal from the Eastern Extension, Australasia and China Telegraph Company to lay a direct cable to Singapore, in consideration of an annual subsidy of £7,500, stated that in view of the now rapid spread of telegraphic facilities and the probability that communication between Hongkong and Singapore will not very long remain entirely dependent upon the existing lines, they had come to the conclusion that the necessity that previously existed in the opinion of the Chamber for a direct cable no longer obtains. Should the Imperial Covernment see fit to connect two such important British Coaling Stations with a direct cable, the Chamber would welcome the scheme as another link for the assistance of Commerce, but it would strongly deprecate an expenditure of the Colony's Funds for the project. The Chairman in referring to it, said with regard to the decline in tea that the question had been pretty well thrashed out, both here and at Foochow. Canton, and Shanghai, and though they could not say what it would result in he had no doubt that Sir Robert Hart, now had the whole matter before him, would be too assure to be likely to ignore the representations of the mercantile bodies of China. They could hardly expect the entireabolition of the lekin and duties on tea, but he thought they might reasonably aspect a fair reduction, as it put China trade in a sery unfavorable position compared with India, Coylon, &c. He passed over several of the succeeding points in the report, referring next to special juries. The question of payment, he

THE FALL AND THE FLOOD. .Besides giving a theory on the origin of the Universe and of mankind—a theory which we have seen to be fraught with almost as many contradictions and impossibilities as there are words employed in expressing it—the Old Testament is profoundly characterised by the report it makes of two most important facts in the annals of man's history on earth, viz. a moral and a physical cataclysm involving the whole and prohibition were made to man; Eve, did species. The former is depicted as a deflection not hear them, for the simple reason that DOYAL from that state of original purity in which man | the had not , yet been created. Remove that corner-stone from the il neither shall ye louch it, lest ye die." But Scriptures, and the whole plan of Redemption they did not die when they touched and ate of it becomes entirely unexplainable. This is a subject | Death was afterwards imposed as a sequel of the magnitude of which almost transcends the life's long career. Again, no mention is made powers of the human mind. We have before us of the tree of life in the general prohibition. the plain biblical record of the consummation of This tree was planted in the midst of the a moral catastrophe on the one side, and history, girden, v. 9 clearly says so, and it was eason, commonsense and anthropological facts, perfectly distinguished from the tree of the knowon the other. Ought we not to take a keen interest in inquiring into the alleged genealogy of our species with a view to discover what value shou'd be attached to a record which was once in vogue with a small nation that styled itself the chosen of the Deity, and which we have subsequently borrowed of it and made our own? By the physical cataclysm, which followed as a consequence of the sin which the Fall engendered and spread, we are told that the whole of our species, excepting a small family, disastrously on him as a penalty for eating of the forbidden perished. Here again, we have Geology and other cognate sciences to consult as our true oracles. Can a more important subject be found for study and consideration? . The Injunction.—Adam is commanded in Geh. II, 15 to 'dress and keep' the garden; in v. to permission is given him to eat of all the fults, but he is expressly prohibited in v. 17 to est of the "tree of the knowledge of good and evil. These injunctions are replete with many inconsistencies. Adam was to keep or watch the garden, long before the animals who were to inhabit i were created; their creation is mentioned only in v. 19, which simply means that they were not created before man, as recorded in the 1st Chapter of Genesis but after him. As one of the arguments advanced by the reconcilers of the Bible with Geology is precisely taken from the precession of animal forms to that of ZETLAND man in the fossil kingdom, it is plain that this second Chapter of Genesis not only contradicts science, but confounds the whole army of Bible expositors and reconcilers.
